

WABI SABI

LIMEWASH style

Wallpaper
Catalog

The ever-evolving world of interior design causes trends to come and go. However, Wabi sabi interior design is one of a different kind. One of the main key of Wabi sabi is its limewash walls, an ancient and traditional method of painting walls, has made a remarkable comeback in modern interior design. This revival is driven by a desire for natural look, and a longing for the timeless beauty and elegance that limewash provides to interior spaces.

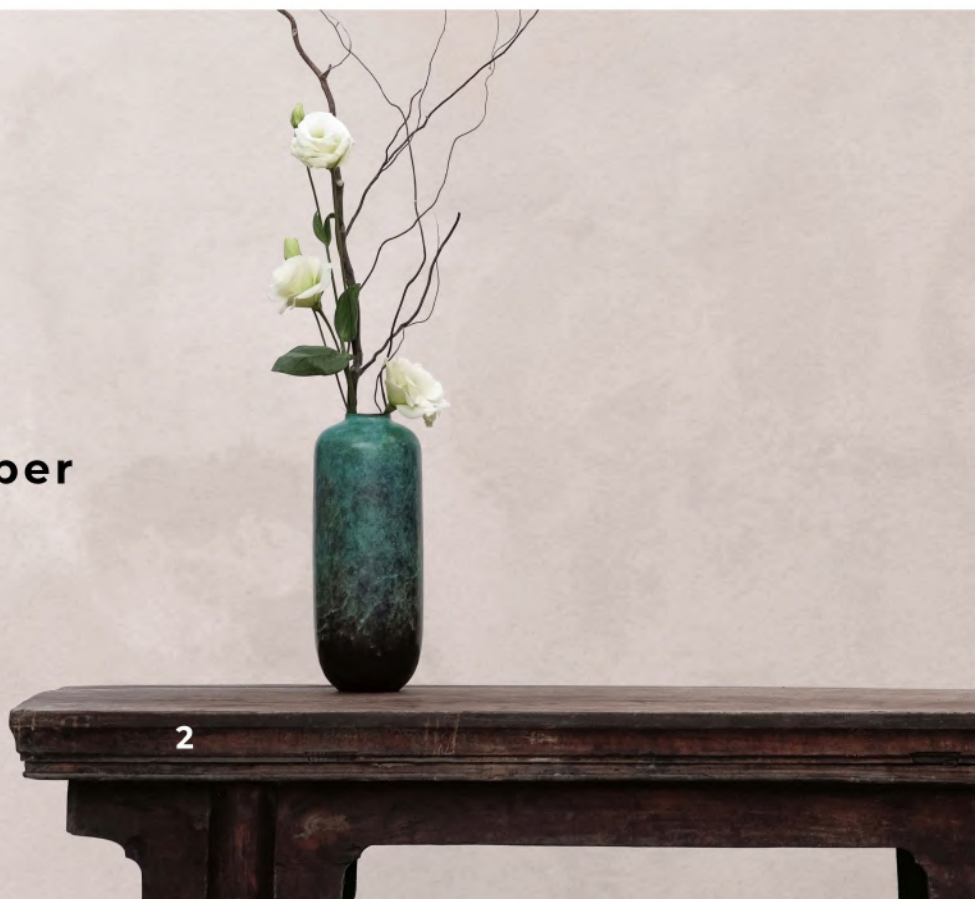

Usually made from slaked lime and water that can be tinted to any color you desire, however, Honpo can provide the wallpaper version for easy installation and lots of design options for you to choose.

Moreover, the design can be used to create a variety of looks, from rustic to modern interior design.

Wabi sabi wallpapers offer a wide range of possibilities for transforming your living space. From wall coverings to furniture, accent walls, and decoration, wabi sabi provides a unique and versatile design solution that can add character, depth, and charm to any room.

A minimalist living room with a light-colored, textured wall. In the center is a large, light-colored sofa with a soft, draped texture. In front of the sofa is a low, oval-shaped wooden coffee table with a thick, natural wood base. On the table are a stack of books and three small, light-colored ceramic vases. To the left of the sofa is a small, light-colored armchair with a wooden base. A potted plant with green leaves is visible on the far left. A floor lamp with a circular shade is on the right. The word "Umi" is centered on the wall above the sofa.

Umi

Simply adorn any room with Umi collection, and you'll find yourself experiencing a truly dreamlike healing time. The textures in Umi collection features a soft touch of the calm sea, making it ideal for anyone who's longing for a minimalist and tranquil escape in their sweet home.
